MEMORANDUM

Date:

December 11, 2013

To:

Board of Retirement

From:

Timothy Price, Retirement CIO

Subject:

Alternative Structures for Manager Presentations

Overview and Recommendation

One of the important duties of the Board of Retirement is to periodically receive updates from their investment managers regarding performance, portfolio composition, organizational shifts and personnel changes. This review can be completed by the Board, or delegated to staff or Consultant. CCCERA practice has been for the Board to meet the investment managers on a rotating schedule at three Special Board Meetings scheduled throughout the year. Practically speaking, the Board can hear from no more than five managers per meeting given the current formal presentation setup. This has led to the current rotation of having direct presentations from 15 managers per year.

CCCERA's current roster includes 39 firms and 56 investment strategies. This means that the Board presentation cycle is to hear from each firm approximately every two years. In an effort to have the Board hear from more of their investment managers on a more timely basis, we recommend that the Board grant consideration to the presentation options outlined in this memo.

Additional Special Meetings

If the Board is comfortable with the current presentation format, the simplest approach would be to simply hold more Special Board Meetings each year. While this approach would not necessarily elicit new or different information from the investment managers, it would allow the Board to receive the manager updates on a more frequent basis.

Panel Discussions

The current presentation approach lends itself towards the Board developing a deeper understanding of each individual firm, but not necessarily towards building a broader understanding of how the firms interact together to create the aggregate CCCERA total fund.

The Board could consider moving to a panel discussion format to explore cross asset class topics. Examples could include:

- Market outlook presentations from managers representing various asset classes
- Macroeconomic risks
- Risk modeling for pension funds
- Inflation forecasting
- Demographic trends around the world
- Liquidity analysis

These panel discussions could replace some or all of the Special Board Meeting presentation meetings.

Off Site Meetings

An additional option would be to move towards having an annual off site meeting. This would entail a 1-2 day meeting at a central location in the County. During this meeting, which would be open to the public, the Board could explore any of the topics noted above as well as any big picture issues that arise during the course of the year but for whatever reason do not fit well into the existing meeting schedule and/or format.

A central goal of the off site would be to get the Board to hear from as many of the investment managers as possible, most likely in the panel discussion format noted above. There could be presentations from individual managers, if warranted. We would also likely seek to bring in an outside speaker to address a timely economic or investment topic. This speaker may or may not come from a current investment manager. Additionally, we could bring in investment staff from other pension systems to provide the Board with a different perspective on investment-related operational or implementation procedures.

Some of the other 1937 Act systems have implemented this format, and the feedback has been quite positive.

Conclusion

The Board has historically provided direct oversight of the investment managers through a formal presentation process, but the growth of the number of strategies has now limited the Board's ability to hear from all managers on a timely basis. Further, the current format does not lend itself towards cross asset class discussion of broad themes that impact the total fund. Staff recommends that the Board consider replacing all or a portion of the Special Board Meeting presentations with panel discussions or an off site meeting in order to hear from more of the investment managers annually on a wider variety of topics that impact CCCERA's investment program.

Budget Review 2013

Benefits and Member Services Divisions Accomplishments

• Recruitment and Staff Training

In 2013, the Member Services Division recruited and hired one new Senior Data Specialist and one additional Member Services Data Specialist. The Benefits Division experienced some staffing challenges during 2013, as personnel transferred to other positions or were recruited by other counties. However, our goal of training two, new, full-time retiree counselors was achieved. Training for these two new counselors was shared by the senior Retiree Counselor and the temporary Retirement Benefits Coordinators.

Introduction of PEPRA in CPAS and Subledger system

With the introduction of PEPRA as of 1/1/13, it was necessary to update our CPAS and subledger systems to accommodate the new provisions. Countless hours were spent constructing parameters and testing the new PEPRA software changes in both systems to ensure they are working correctly.

Electronic Imports

Working in real time has been slightly delayed due to the reprogramming faced with the introduction of PEPRA. The first stage of this reprogramming has been completed. Staff worked at an aggressive pace to post the electronic import files into CPAS. Most of the special districts are up to date as of the last available payroll period; only the County lags slightly. Staff anticipates that all employer imports will be posted and balanced within the last available payroll period by 12/31/13.

Retiree Funding

Staff is now transitioning to using CPAS for the transfer of employee contributions from the active reserve accounts to the retiree reserves. CPAS will be used to obtain funding totals and create journal entries.

New Hire Process

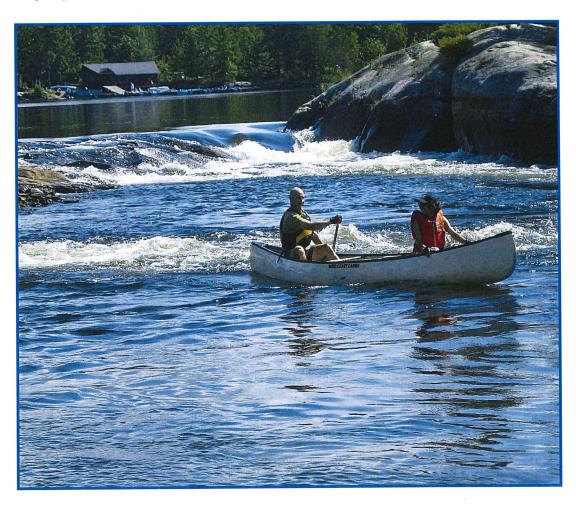

The phasing out of the old subledger system also called for a complete overhaul of the new hire process. Staff cross-training was needed to accommodate the change in work flow; new procedures were developed to incorporate the electronic import process. The new hiring process has become more complicated due to the PEPRA tiers and rules.

December 2012 Retirements

December 2012 marked an unusually high number of retirement applications with close to 200 members retiring. In order to be as accurate as possible, our staff must wait until the final paycheck is processed for each member, which is usually the 10th of the following month. Staff began working on this group of finals mid-January 2013. Retirement allowances were calculated, reviewed, checked, and options were mailed to 97% of these applicants before the end of February 2013.

Benefits Division Accomplishments

- Disability Counselor, Part Time
 To support our Disability Counselor and meet our goals from 2012, an active counselor was designated to work in the Disability Unit. Duties and workload were divided between the disability process and applicants, and active member support. After training, this counselor left CCCERA for another county retirement system. After this employee left CCCERA, we were able to recruit a new active counselor to learn the complicated disability process, while sharing active counselor job tasks.
- Active Counselor As a result of moving a full time active counselor to the Disability
 Unit, we recruited and hired a new active member counselor in April 2013. Training for this individual was shared by the Retirement Benefits Coordinators.
- Benefit Program Coordinators In February 2013, we began rotating three Active Counselors through a sequential three month rotation as Benefits Program Coordinator to support the Interim Benefits Manager. These employees were instrumental in providing the second review of final retirement allowances so that we were able to get the majority of our retirees on payroll quicker, especially the large group for December 2012.

Administrative Services/ Human Resources Accomplishments

Board of Retirement

- Researched, coordinated installation, trained staff, and implemented software for audio recordings of Board Meetings.
- Created forms and spreadsheets to track Board Member continuing education hours.
 Provided trustees with updates on earned credits (AB 1519).
- Researched and established a method for electronic Board packet dissemination via DropBox.

Human Resources

Responsible for the recruitment process, including interview questions and identifying professional personnel for interview panels for the following positions:

- Compliance Officer
- Administrative Services/ HR Coordinator
- Information Technology Coordinator
- Accountant

- Two Senior Member Services Data Specialists
- Member Services Data Specialist
- Five Retirement Counselors
- Prepared information for Anderson and Associates to facilitate a Total Compensation Study.
- Commenced development of position specifications for Assistant General Counsel.
- Administered Family Medical Leaves (FMLA) for seven staff members.
- Conducted three exit interviews.
- Participated in "meet and confer" meetings, as needed.

Administration

- Liaison with Transwestern (property management) to refurbish building interior common areas, with new furniture, plants, baseboards, carpet, etc. Worked with Transwestern to complete replacement of air conditioning units, plus cooling and heating rebalancing throughout the building.
- Commenced revision of CCCERA forms.
- Replaced all copiers and provided additional machine in Benefits Division to improve workflow.

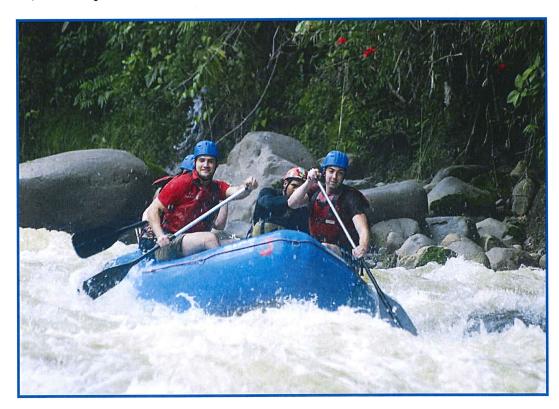

Information Technology Division Accomplishments

Hardware and Software Improvements

Although the actual pace of information technology innovation may not be as fast as Moore's Law (the number of transistors on integrated circuits doubles every year), evaluating, implementing, and maintaining the best hardware and software solutions for CCCERA is a challenging task. In 2013, this division:

- improved our security by choosing Sophos Protection for internet, email, and information systems,
- upgraded operating systems, imaging software, and ad hoc reporting capabilities,
- provided iPad tablets and Board Room wireless access for Board trustees,
- planned and added audio recording software to the Board Room sound system,
- replaced servers, copiers, and UPS systems as needed,
- answered questions, found solutions, fixed desktop problems on-the-fly, and
- finalized testing of our CPAS hot site at SDCERA.

CCCERA's programmer/analyst has improved integration between system functions in a variety of ways. Custom queries and reports are generated through Crystal Reports from our databases for tasks as diverse as public information requests and Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) updates. The programmer/analyst is fine-tuning information system fields, by eliminating redundancies and adding detail that can be sorted depending on need, whether for in-house projects or actuarial studies. The programmer bridges the gap between our system and our member employer systems, and between internal divisions, streamlining the processes and procedures for electronic reporting, data manipulation, and compilation.

Legal Division Accomplishments

- Analyzed, summarized, and assisted in implementation of the California Public Employees' Pension Reform Act of 2013 (PEPRA), Assembly Bill (AB) 340, passed by the California Legislature on August 31, 2012, and signed by the Governor on September 12, 2012. (Government Code ("GC") Sections 7522.02-7522.74.) Issues included: PEPRA tier membership eligibility, new general and safety retirement tier structure, methodology used for calculating normal cost contributions, integration with social security, limitations on employer paid member contributions, limitations on cost sharing of employer contributions, compensation cap, pensionable compensation, restrictions on working after retirement and felony forfeiture.
- Conducted months of analysis along with CCCERA's Deputy Chief Executive Officer of hundreds of pay items offered by CCCERA participating employers beyond base pay and whether these "differentials" could meet the PEPRA definition of "pensionable compensation." Participated in follow up meetings with employers and other interested parties, as well as presentations to the Retirement Board regarding pensionable compensation.
- Added PEPRA plan provisions to the 2013 CCCERA Lawbook, as well as other statutory amendments to the CCCERA plan through the 2012-2013 legislative session. Worked with tax counsel on an updated submission to the IRS for the Letter of Determination, included the updated plan documents and additional current key documentation.
- Worked with outside counsel on specialized matters (Ice Miller on tax matters, Reed Smith on fiduciary, litigation, and other matters as directed by the Chief Executive Officer).
- Worked with outside counsel on active CCCERA litigation:
- Prepared or assisted in the preparation and amendments of administrative policies, including:

Policy Regarding Assessment and Determination of Compensation Enhancements Travel Policy

- Presented or assisted other staff's presentation to the Retirement Board regarding:
 - o Elements in CCCERA's benefit structure
 - o FPPC gift reporting rules
 - o Brown Act Open Meetings Laws
 - o CCCERA disability process
- Continued to advise staff on a variety of legal questions as needed, including responses relating to subpoenas, qualified domestic relations orders, guardianship, conservatorship, trust and probate matters, and power of attorney.

- Continued to defend CCCERA staff in depositions.
- Assisted the interim Benefits Managers with legal issues including benefits, guardianships, marriage dissolution, and PEPRA issues.
- Provided legal training and orientation to new retirement board members, new retirement board officers, and new staff. Legal topics included: Brown Act (open meetings law), Public Records Act, confidentiality, CERL provisions and specific legal topic pertaining to each position.
- Drafted correspondence and conducted contract review, contact revisions, and negotiations as needed.
- Responded to records and information requests, trained senior staff, and assisted in legal aspects of responding to public records requests.
- Updated trustees and staff on legal developments of interest to CCCERA.
- Attended educational conferences and attorneys' roundtable discussions on public pension legal issues at the state and '37 Act level (CALAPRS and SACRS), prepared agenda and moderated CALAPRS attorneys' roundtable.

Investment Accomplishments for 2013

In the face of continued global political and macroeconomic headwinds, the CCCERA Investment Division staff continued to prudently implement the Association's strategic asset allocation plan and search for new investment opportunities. In contrast to our report from 2012, when the internal change in CIO slowed the pace of projects, 2013 was an active year for the investment staff.

Staff completed two strategic reviews over the past year. We outlined the potential allocations and opportunity sets within both private equity and real estate over the next several years. The private equity review resulted in the recommendation to launch a search for a new private equity fund of funds manager to focus on the small to middle end of the market. Sigular Guff was selected for this mandate and contract negotiations are currently underway. We also laid out the potential for follow-on commitments to existing managers.

Our real estate review discussed the likelihood that several of our 2004-2008 vintage funds would begin to sell properties in earnest and that this would likely result in large return of capital. In order to maintain our exposure to the private real estate markets, staff identified approximately $240 million that could be committed to new funds in 2013. To date, the Board has committed $60 million to value-added funds and $150 to distressed funds.

Contract negotiations and reviews were conducted in association with external legal counsel. Contracts finalized in the past year include:

Public equities: Artisan Partners Global Opportunities

Private real estate: DLJ RECP Fund V, Long Wharf Real Estate Fund IV, INVESCO Real Estate Fund III, Siguler Guff DREOF II, Paulson Real Estate II and

Oaktree Real Estate Opportunity Fund VI

Private equity: Pathway Private Equity Fund 7

Real assets: Commonfund Natural Resources IX, Aether

The Board identified four mandates for the new 5% allocation to real asset mandates. The PIMCO All Asset and Wellington Real Total Return funds were selected as the public market components of the program. Assets earmarked, but not yet invested, in the private markets are being held in the Wellington fund. The first private market mandate was awarded to Commonfund Natural Resources Fund IX and the second mandate has been awarded to Aether Real Assets.

The WHV domestic equity portfolio was terminated in May 2013 by Board action on the basis of underperformance and personnel changes. WHV was not replaced and the assets were redistributed to other domestic equity managers. The GMO International Value Extended Markets strategy was also terminated in May 2013 due to underperformance and the assets are currently being managed by State Street Global Markets on a passive basis. After a comprehensive search, the Board selected Pyrford as the new manager. We are currently engaged in contract negotiations with Pyrford as the new manager.

Asset allocation rebalancing occurred in February and July; monthly progress updates were provided to the Board throughout the year. The July rebalancing included a schedule for investing the proceeds from employer contribution pre-payments received at the end of the month.

Prudent investment of member funds demands due diligence and onsite visits to verify the prudent management of investments. Staff conducted on-site visits nationwide in the past year, conducting visits to Adams Street, Aether, Artisan, Carpenter, Commonfund, DBL Investors, DLJ RECP, Emerald, First Eagle, GMO, INTECH, INVESCO Real Estate, LaSalle Real Estate, Lazard, Long Wharf, Oaktree, Pathway Capital, Paulson, PIMCO, Siguler Guff, State Street, Wellington, WHV, William Blair. Staff also attended Manager/Client conferences at Adams Street, Angelo Gordon, DLJ RECP, Energy Investor Funds, GMO, INVESCO Real Estate and Long Wharf.

CCCERA Net Assets Held in Trust for Pension Benefits

Organization Chart

Organization Strategies

Natural forces can change the stream of a river to a different course, diverting to a new direction. Retirement systems across California are also adapting to a new direction in pension administration, one that diverges from the benefit structures of the past.

STAFFING

In the last decade, the public pension industry, an enterprise that exists to provide safety and security to millions of older Americans, has undergone a series of legislative changes. Regardless of the merit of these changes, organizations like CCCERA must continue to administer their systems with transparency, efficiency, and integrity. New accounting disclosures, auditing requirements, benefit tiers, public records requests, investment management, data protection, and legal mandates have created a system that becomes more complicated to administer every year. In order to comply with service needs, we must rely on our most important resource, our staff.

The Information Technology Division is the electronic lifeline for all our business processes. Each year, more functions are dependent on reliable systems, from the desktop to the server rack. Due to this rapid growth, our IT Division needs experienced staff with specialized skills, to maintain server and network support, database administration, and business continuity implementation. To keep our service delivery at a high level of quality and efficiency, we plan to recruit an additional IT Coordinator, to provide comprehensive support to this division. (The IT Divison also monitors and maintains the telephone and audio-visual systems at CCCERA, plus works in conjunction with the Administration Division on printers, faxes, and copying machines. Information systems don't sleep; many times IT personnel work after hours applying system upgrades, backing up servers, running queries, and testing functionality.) The salary for this position is not to exceed $7317.58 monthly.

The Accounting Division is requesting one additional Accounting Technician. Investment related accounting tasks are increasing; we continue adding to the number of investment managers who handle assets outside of State Street. New GASB reporting requirements (GASB 67) must be implemented by 12/31/2014, and incorporated into the CAFR going forward. This position will also provide backup for accounts payable, public records request research, fixed assets inventory, cash receipts reconciliations, journal entry tracking, and general file maintenance. Our existing Accounting Specialists and Accountants are parsing their time between new investment accounting demands and traditional tasks. A new Accounting Technician position, with salary not to exceed $4709.92 monthly, will improve our workflow and allow cross-training on vital processes.

The Administrative Division has been working for almost two years with 8½ positions, including the Division Manager, and the approved Administrative Services/HR Coordinator position, which is not yet filled. With this staffing level, we have completed reorganization of filing for the Legal and Investment Divisions, performed research and gathered documentation for the Member Services Division, and continued drafting and processing correspondence to members. Originally, we considered some of these tasks as "temporary;" however, we will continue these functions going forward. We have identified additional special projects that have been placed "on hold," due to lack of staff, since our customary workload is increasing. For these reasons, we are requesting an additional Retirement Office Specialist position on a permanent basis. This position, with salary not to exceed $4314.99 monthly, will also add capacity in support of the Legal and Investment Divisions, and back up for Imaging, Reception, and file maintenance.

Currently, the Investment Division consists of CCCERA's Chief Investment Officer and one Investment Analyst, with duties divided in a general manner to maximize the effectiveness of our limited staff. Projecting forward, Investment Division plans include a substantial upgrade to internal investment documentation management by implementing an electronic database that indexes onsite visit reports, notes from due diligence visits, correspondence, contacts, etc., and integrating this information into an accessible, quantifiable, resource. This database will improve division functionality, increase oversight of the custodian and other operational vendors, i.e., securities lending, and lower our costs. Implementing a pension assets dashboard (comprehensive data summary) will improve monitoring of aggregate risk exposure. Over the next few years, the CIO will be less involved in operational issues in order to provide greater general oversight. Implementing these goals means an increase in staffing for implementation. Some of the tasks required to make this project successful are cataloguing our existing data, building and populating databases, and releasing an RFP to identify pension investment management software that fits our needs. For this improvement in division sophistication, we need additional energetic and experienced staff.

Our team of investment analysts will be dedicated to building and incorporating operational enhancements into the workflow. Each analyst will have specific focus areas, but will cross-train for division coverage. Assignments, as directed by the CIO, may include: becoming subject matter experts on the custodial relationship, overseeing and suggesting changes to the securities lending and commission recapture programs, special research projects on individual asset classes, monitoring CCCERA's liquidity profile, handling cash flow planning and notification, stress testing the overall fund, and other projects as needed. The salary for this position is not to exceed $9096.00 monthly.

We are requesting a new position, Pension Administration System (PAS) Coordinator, for the Member Services Division. This specialized position, designed to maximize CPAS functionality and efficiency, will work closely with IT to make programming changes and bug fixes, audit and test new software releases, and problem solve for end users. The PAS Coordinator will work with the Compliance Officer on testing system data, oversee Form 1099R reporting and balancing, provide actuarial reporting and discrepancy investigation, and collaborate with the Programmer/Analyst to create reports as needed. The PAS Coordinator will also work with employers to facilitate correct electronic reporting procedures and verify data integrity. Miscellaneous project management duties will also be part of this position's job description. The salary for this position is not to exceed $7315.00 monthly.

OFFICE ENVIRONMENT

As pension system management grows in complexity, so does the staff required to successfully administer the plan. To maintain and improve our functionality in several core divisions, office space capacity must be maximized by a combination of minimal square footage increases and redesign of existing space.

Our last renovation of the IT space and server room was in the late 1990s. Since then, we have grown from one IT staff member and 1 server, to a complex network and over 15 servers, administered by a manager, an IT coordinator, plus a programmer/analyst (with a request in this budget for one more IT coordinator position.) The programs and data IT supports are vital to CCCERA's operation. Our information system needs have outgrown our dedicated space.

Additionally, no system is immune to security breaches. Data compromise from malicious sources is a potential threat to any business that manages personal data and finances, as is hardware tampering, if installations are easily accessible. Relocating the IT Division to a less centralized, secure area is a prudent move.

We have considered the best use of available space, i.e., incorporating existing space repurposing, architectural design, review, and plan development. This analysis includes schematics for cabling, HVAC, etc., of a new, secure server area that will also be used for hosting our cooperative disaster recovery components for a sister system. The new server area will maximize the use of a vacant building space adjacent to CCCERA's current Member Services Division, which is less marketable space due to its configuration and lack of light. By removing one wall in this area, we can create a larger, more secure server and network administration area, which includes two offices for the IT manager and Programmer/Analyst, plus two cubicles for IT coordinators.

An adjacent space will house the retired member check printer, along with a temperature controlled storage area for checks, 1099 forms, EFT forms, etc. Processing these items on the printer creates fine "dust" that can compromise the integrity of servers located nearby. Just as servers are very susceptible to dust contamination (which clings due to surface static), ambient termperature control and air circulation are vital for functioning. This area will be an upgrade for CCCERA, designed specifically for optimal hardware and software performance, with controlled temperature and rack space allowing free air flow.

The 2014 estimated leasing costs for this 938 square foot expansion are:
•$1.55 per square foot, $1,453.90 per month.

The existing server room is next to the kitchen and lunchroom area, which was initially conceived to accommodate approximately 20 staff. Currently, CCCERA has 50 employees, not counting temporary assistance. During gatherings in this space, staff members are literally standing on top of one another, and there is no room for everyone to sit during lunch or other breaks. We can enlarge the lunchroom by opening the wall to the old server room, after relocating IT as discussed above. The existing IT manager's office will also be vacant. This space, with the addition of glass panels for lighting improvement, will be used for the disability counselor(s), as it is oversized and easily able accommodate two employees. One existing office (currently occupied by the programmer/analyst) will be used for the compliance officer.

CCCERA's Legal Division will be recruiting for the previously approved position of Assistant General Counsel in late 2013 or early 2014. Currently, there is no developed office space for this position. The existing General Counsel's office is next to an office that is underused; while there is a tenant, the space is not filled. This existing tenant is willing to vacate a portion of their space in exchange for minor tenant improvements, i.e., storage space relocation and changing electrical outlet placement.

Concurrently, the Investment Division is recommending an additional Investment Analyst position, due to the increase in tasks associated with monitoring investments and reporting requirements. There is a small, shared conference space and entryway between the Legal and Investment Divisions, but no space for a second investment analyst. When we annex the space from the adjacent office, we will be able to develop space for the Assistant General Counsel, the proposed Investment Analyst position, and create a usable, confidential space for meetings that both divisions can share.

2014 leasing costs for this 787 square foot space expansion would also be:
•$1.55 per square foot, equaling $1,219.85 per month.

We anticipate the cost of tenant improvements to be partially covered by the landlord, as is standard with new leases, with the balance depreciated over the remaining term of the lease (approximately three years).

OUTSIDE PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

CCCERA's professional consultants provide valuable insight and specialized skills to assist the Board and staff with the oftimes turbulent currents of pension administration.

In 2014, we will use the following agencies:

- The Segal Company, for actuarial services and benefit statements.
- Ice Miller, LLP for general tax counsel and IRS Letter of Determination.
- Milliman for investment planning, on site visits, and asset allocation management.
- Milliman for Actuarial Audit.
- Contra Costa County DOIT for network integration, data processing, and related services.

- County Counsel of Contra Costa County for disability services.
- CPAS for benefit administration systems maintenance, testing, and programming changes as needed.
- Transwestern Property Management Services for building management and maintenance services.
- Specialized outside Counsel for specific issues, as needed.

We acknowledge the pending retirement of Bob Helliesen of Milliman, who with his graceful, articulate, and intelligent approach to investment consulting, has used his expertise and experience to make our investment program successful for many years.

We plan to work with the Board of Retirement to determine whether such a major change may require an RFP for Investment Consulting Services.

Investment Division

CCCERA staff continues to implement the long-term, strategic asset allocation by monitoring our roster of institutional investment managers and seeking new investment opportunities when appropriate. At all times, our primary goal is to grow the investment portfolio while assuming a moderate risk level in accordance with the policy set by the Board of Retirement. We seek to safeguard the funds both for current retirees as well as for future generations of CCCERA beneficiaries.

2014 Investment Division goals include:

- Explore the use of a risk-based asset allocation approach.

- Conduct a review of the fixed income program. Specifically, we will study the feasibility of allowing our fixed income managers to adopt a more defensive posture in times of rising interest rates.
- Maintain our schedule of on-site visits. We will specifically seek to meet with those firms that have not had an on-site visit in recent years, though much of this was accomplished in 2013.
- Spend more time conducting outreach to other institutional investors. In order to gather new investment and governance ideas, we will seek to meet directly with other investment staffs at public, corporate and endowment funds.
- Evaluate current investment opportunities which may fit into the market opportunity allocation. If appropriate opportunities are identified, bring them to the Board's attention.
- Recruit for a new Investment Analyst to join our team.

Budget 2014

Section 31580.2 of the California Government Code currently provides that the entire expense of the administration (of the system) shall be paid from the earnings of CCCERA and limits the expense of administration to twenty-one-hundredths of one percent (21 basis points) of CCCERA's total accrued actuarial liability. In addition, 31580.2 provides that computer hardware, software, and computer technology consulting expenses are no longer subject to the administrative budget cap.

The maximum is computed following statute as:
Actuarial Accrued Liability as of December 31, 2012:

 $7,761,316,000 \times 0.0021 = 16,299,000$ available per law.

The budget amount we think we need for year 2014: $9,320,400

The balance: Unallocated Expense Reserve: $6,978,600

Disaster Recovery Budget

We consider our era as a time period in which humankind has mastered mechanical and technological control over past dangers that threatened our survival. Recent earthquakes, tsunamis, hurricanes, and floods have punched holes in our perceived security, reminding us how vital disaster recovery processes are for organizations like CCCERA. Over 10,000 retired people depend on CCCERA to protect and provide their income stream, for themselves, and for their survivors.

Our disaster recovery project is designed to protect that trust, regardless of when or how disaster strikes. In 2014, user testing will begin, with a real-time "shut-down" to verify staff access to the remote servers in the event of a power failure. The remote system replicates our data through a T1 line every 15 minutes around-the-clock. In the event of a regional disaster, data losses would be minimal, and recovery almost immediate.

Section 31522.6 of the California Government Code provides that the Board may contract with a third party to temporarily assume administration of the system if a catastrophic event destroys or severely damages the system's administrative facilities or otherwise prevents or significantly hinders continued local administration of the system. The costs of contracting with the third party for temporary administration of the system are a charge against the investment earnings of the retirement fund.

9:15 AM - Keynote Panel - Contrasting Risk Parity and LDI Asset Allocation Models - the Benefits of a Dynamic Program

The market downturn in 2008 showed the shortcomings of the total return model. Unwinding an unsustainable asset allocation policy can be costly under market duress with little flexibility to adjust portfolio positioning. A dynamic asset allocation approach allows pension plans to manage assets in a manner that balances the rewards of investment return opportunities with the inherent risks embedded in the liabilities. Taking equity and bond market valuations and past performance into consideration, we'll hear about which asset allocation model makes the most sense going forward.

(A) Risk Parity

- Risk Parity Explained
- Risk/Return in the Past Decade
- Why does Risk Parity Make Sense Now?

- Will there be Drawdowns during a Rising Rates Environment or will it be Muted?
- How would a Risk Parity Portfolio have Performed in Past Rate Increase Periods?
- Risk Parity Flaws Discussion of the following and a Solution for each:
 - 1. Leverage and more importantly, Leveraging the Inappropriate Assets
 - 2. Over-Reliance on Bonds while Ignoring Valuations

 - 4. Many Portfolio Construction Approaches only consider Volatility Risk, Not Tail Risk or Drawdown Risk
 - 5. Leverage and Illiquidity Do Not Mix
- Is Tail Risk Parity the newest Trend? Explain the Concept of Measuring Expected Tail Loss rather than Volatility, Cheaper Hedges for Protection, Reducing Tail Risks while Retaining More Upside than Risk Parity

Allocations to Protect Against a Rising Interest Rate Environment (outside of Fixed Income Strategies), While Achieving Non-Correlation and Diversification

Real Asset Strategies

Where or when is the inflation? While assets of the Federal Reserve have tripled over the past few years, there has been little or no loan growth during that time. The money has remained in the banks with no incentive to lend because the Fed has paid interest on bank reserves. As rates rise, it will cause the excess reserves to make its way to the consumer side of the monetary base as banks will seek out the higher interest they will get paid. This will create the inflation many have been expecting, barring an unlikely flawless Fed exit strategy of tapering and draining reserves.

With many pension plans increasing their allocations to Real Asset Strategies, demand is expected to remain strong as they search for higher income potential, lower correlations and inflation protection.

How does the retirement board's duty of impartiality among its various member groups -- from the newest entrants to the oldest retirees, from the safety groups to general members, and from active members generally to retirees -- play out in the context of so many challenges facing retirement systems today? Those challenges include creating and maintaining a diversified portfolio with some short-term investments being more favorable to retirees and longer term investments more favorable to future retirees. They include interests of members who collectively bargain and those that don't. They include funding considerations and contribution rate determinations that impact all members, and their current or former employers, in different ways. And, in a few cases, they include municipal bankruptcy considerations.

SENIOR COUNSEL SEMINAR*

(8:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.)

8:30 a.m. - 9:30 a.m.

The Evolving and Often Expanding Role of the General Counsel

Our clients very often don't appreciate the importance of maintaining clarity of role for the legal advisor. Our knowledge of the law and of the business of the system can make it tempting for others to delegate increasing amounts of responsibility to us. What are the organizational risks? What are the personal risks? Balancing administrative, executive, policy, and enforcement roles can be challenging, especially for attorneys. And what exactly is Fiduciary Counsel?

9:30 a.m. - 10:00 a.m.

Co-Investment of Trust Assets From Multiple Types of Plans

Do you co-invest OPEB funds with pension assets? Do you have multiple plans invested together? Do you invest closed plans with active plans? Does this raise any fiduciary issues? The panel will discuss the benefits and risks.

10:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.

Break

10:30 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Strategies for Ensuring Compliance With Ethical Standards and Fiduciary Duties

Many plans have ethics standards and policies relating to financial interest disclosure, travel, gifts and meals, and revolving door service in place for board and staff. But how are these best monitored? What about the rogue board member? The presentation will look at policies from different agencies. The discussion will include how different funds handle difficult situations.

*The Senior Counsel Seminar is limited to members with 10 years of public fund experience and/or members serving as general counsel of a fund.
